intention of making any payments on the RISC.

19. When defendant made the representations, she knew them to be false and made the representations with the intention to deceive and defraud plaintiff and to induce plaintiff to act in reliance on the representations and deliver possession of the vehicle to her.

20. Plaintiff, at the time the representations were made by defendant and at the time the plaintiff took the actions herein alleged, was ignorant of the falsity of the defendant's representations and believed them to be true. In reliance on these representations, plaintiff was induced to and did deliver possession of the vehicle to defendant. Had the plaintiff known the actual facts, it would not have taken such action. Plaintiff's reliance on defendant's representations was justified because it did not know that defendant would not would not make any payments on the RISC, as she agreed.

21. As a proximate result of the fraudulent conduct of the defendant as herein alleged, the plaintiff was damaged in an amount to be proven at trial.

22. The aforementioned conduct of the defendant was an intentional misrepresentation, deceit, or concealment of a material fact known to the defendant with the intention on the part of the defendant of thereby depriving the plaintiff of property or legal rights or otherwise causing injury, and was despicable conduct that subjected the plaintiff to a cruel and unjust hardship in conscious disregard of the plaintiff's rights, so as to justify an award of exemplary and punitive damages.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Conversion)

23. Plaintiff refers to and incorporates the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 22 as though fully set forth herein.

24. Under the terms of the RISC and California law, plaintiff is entitled to current and immediate possession of the vehicle, defendant failed and refused and ref and Safety Code Section 11488.4.

You are instructed that if you wish to contest the forfeiture of this property pursuant to Health and Safety Code Section 11488.5, you must file a verified Claim Opposing Forfeiture stating your interest in the property within thirty (30) days of your actual receipt of Notice of Seizure or within thirty (30) days from the date of the last publication of the Notice of Seizure, if you were not personally served or by mail, with the Superior Court of the County of Riverside, Corona Courthouse. Instructions for filing a claim electronically may be found at the following website: https://www.riverside.courts.ca.gov/FormsFiling/ESubmit/esubmit.php. As soon as possible, serve a verified copy of your Claim on the District Attorney of Riverside County by email to assetforfeitureunit@rivcoda.org or by mail Attention: Asset Forfeiture Unit at 3960 Orange Street, Riverside, California 92501. Failure to serve the District Attorney's Office within (30) days from the date of filing the Claim Opposing Forfeiture in the Superior Court can result in forfeiture of the property or delay of any legal proceedings.

Forfeiture in the Superior Court can result in forfeiture of the property or delay of any legal proceedings. If your claim is properly filed, the District Attorney will decide whether to file a Petition for Forfeiture to contest your claim. In the case where a Petition is filed and a contested hearing is held, you will have the following rights which include but are not limited to: The right to use the subpoena powers of the court and order witnesses to attend, the right to testify on your own behalf, submit evidence showing the legitimacy of the seized assets, and a right to cross examine the petitioner's witnesses. This is a civil action, you have the additional right to represent yourself or hire your own attorney, but there is no right to appointed counsel in this case. Failure to timely file a verified claim stating an interest in the property in the Superior Court will result in the property being declared forfeited to the State of California and distributed pursuant to the provisions of Health and Safety Code Section 11489 without further notice or hearing.
