1) NEGLIGENCE
2) NEGLIGENCE PER SE
3) LOSS OF CONSORTIUM
COMES NOW the Plaintiffs Carlos Antonio Reyes and Maria Susana Enriquez who complain and alleges as follows: Plaintiffs Carlos Antonio Reyes and Maria Susana Enriquez are individuals who reside in the city of Wilmington, county of Los Angeles, state of California, and were lawfully married at the time of the incident. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and, upon such information and belief, allege that at all times herein mentioned, Defendants John Chow, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and each of them, (hereinafter Defendants) reside in the city of Tustin, county of Orange County, state of California. In some other actionable manner, for the events and happenings herein referred to, and that Plaintiffs' injuries as herein alleged were proximately caused by the negligence of these Defendants. Some of the acts and/or omissions herein alleged occurred within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court. Plaintiffs thereby allege that this Court has proper jurisdictional authority to hear and adjudicate the issues herein alleged. This action arises from an occupational injury which occurred on August 3, 2021. Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes while working on demolishing a property located at 13311 Redhill Ave., Tustin, CA 92780 stepped on a nail with his right foot causing him severe injuries, including amongst other things, an amputation. Based upon information and belief, Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and each of them were the homeowners of 13311 Redhill Ave., Tustin, CA 92780. Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes at all times relevant herein was working as a demolition worker. Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes alleges that Defendant John Chow hired Defendant Julio Sanchez to perform demolish work at 13311 Redhill Ave., Tustin, CA 92780. California requires a license for projects whose costs exceed $500; however, there are many license classifications for the different types of work. For demolition and building moving, a C21license is required. Based upon information, none of the Defendants had a valid C21 license for this project. The project exceeded $500.00. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and upon such information and belief, allege that Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes was an "excluded" employee pursuant to California Labor Code § 25 3352(h) for Workers Compensation benefits against Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, Julio Sanchez, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and each of them, the homeowner, because he did not meet the minimum 52-hour requirement nor earning requirement under that statute. Moreover, based upon information and belief, no Defendant carried a valid workers compensation policy for insurance. On August 3, 2021, the Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes alleges that defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, Julio Sanchez, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and each of them, violated California Business & Professions Code § 7026. Every entity must be licensed as a contractor in California if the entity offers to or does construct or alter any structure on real property in the state for a total cost greater than $500 (Business and Professions Code § 7026). Business and Professions Code § 7026 broadly defines the term "contractor" to include one who acts in the capacity of a contractor and "any person who undertakes to ... or does himself or herself or by or through others" work that a contractor would undertake. Business and Professions Code § 7031 prohibits the unlicensed contractor from bringing or maintaining an action to collect compensation for the act or contract (law or equity), and requires disgorgement of all sums already paid. On August 3, 2021, the Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and each of them owned said property at 13311 Redhill Ave., Tustin, CA 92780 and occupied it as their residence. At all times relevant herein, Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, Julio Sanchez, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, were not insured under California Workers' Compensation laws. Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes alleges that at all times relevant herein, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2750.5 and by operation of law Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, Julio Sanchez, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and each of them, were the employer of Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes under the "Ultimate Hirer" doctrine, and the Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes was an employee of said Defendants. The Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes alleges that Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, and DOES 1 through 100, were at all relevant times herein, the property owners, and in possession, and control of said property on 13311 Redhill Ave., Tustin, CA 92780, herein described, including, but not limited to location where this incident occurred. That Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereupon allege, that each of the Defendants designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner or means for the events and happenings herein referred to, and proximately caused injury and damage to the Plaintiffs, as herein alleged, either through their conduct or through the conduct of their agents, servants, or employees, or due to their ownership, manufacture, maintenance, repair or sale of the instrumentalities causing injuries and damages, or in some manner or means presently unknown to these Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs are informed, believe, and thereon alleges that, at all times mentioned herein, there existed a unity of interest and ownership between the specifically named Defendants and DOE Defendants, and each of them, such that any individuality and separateness between the Defendants, and each of them, ceased to exist. Moreover, that the specifically named Defendants and DOE Defendants, and each of them, were the successors-in-interest and/or alter egos of the other defendants, and each of them, in that they purchased, controlled, dominated, and operated each other without any separate identity, observation of formalities, or other manner of division. Additionally, that to continue maintaining the facade of a separateness and individual existence between the specifically named Defendants and DOE Defendants, and each of them, does not satisfy justice. That at all times herein alleged, the Defendants, and each of them, were acting as the agents, servants, and employees of the other Defendants herein, and of each other, and were acting within the purpose and scope and authority of their said employment or agency. Plaintiffs pray for any and all prejudgment interest under California Code of Civil Procedure, §3291 and any other interest allowed by law.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION FOR NEGLIGENCE
PLAINTIFF CARLOS ANTONIO REYES

AGAINST JOHN CHOW, JLC PROPERTY INVESTMENT, JULIO SANCHEZ, AND DOES 1-100 INCLUSIVE, AND EACH OF THEM The Plaintiffs hereby re-alleges and incorporates herein by reference, all of the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 22 of this complaint, as though fully set forth at length herein. This action arises from an occupational injury which occurred on August 3, 2021. Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes while working on demolishing a property located at 13311 Redhill Ave., Tustin, CA 92780 stepped on a nail with his right foot causing him severe injuries, including amongst other things, an amputation. Based upon information and belief, Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and each of them were the homeowners of 13311 Redhill Ave., Tustin, CA 92780. Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes at all times relevant herein was working as a demolition worker. Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes alleges that Defendant John Chow hired Defendant Julio Sanchez to perform demolish work at 13311 Redhill Ave., Tustin, CA 92780. California requires a license for projects whose costs exceed $500; however, there are many license classifications for the different types of work. For demolition and building moving, a C21 license is required. Based upon information, none of the Defendants had a valid C21 license for this project. The project exceeded $500.00. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and upon such information and belief, allege that Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes was an "excluded" employee pursuant to California Labor Code § 3352(h) for Workers Compensation benefits against Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, Julio Sanchez, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and each of them, the homeowner, because he did not meet the minimum 52-hour requirement nor earning requirement under that statute. Moreover, based upon information and belief, no Defendant carried a valid workers compensation policy for insurance. On August 3, 2021, the Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes alleges that defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, Julio Sanchez, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and each of them, violated California Business & Professions Code § 7026. Every entity must be licensed as a contractor in California if the entity offers to or does construct or alter any structure on real property in the state for a total cost greater than $500 (Business and Professions Code § 7026). Business and Professions Code § 7026 broadly defines the term "contractor" to include one who acts in the capacity of a contractor and "any person who undertakes to ... or does himself or herself or by or through others" work that a contractor would undertake. Business and Professions Code § 7031 prohibits the unlicensed contractor from bringing or maintaining an action to collect compensation for the act or contract (law or equity), and requires disgorgement of all sums already paid. On August 3, 2021, the Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and each of them owned said property at 13311 Redhill Ave., Tustin, CA 92780 and occupied it as their residence. Homeowners who hire unlicensed contractors can be found at fault for their part in the underground economy. If a homeowner contracts for a significant residential remodel, he or she is treated as an employer and is required to provide a safe place of employment. A significant residential remodel is classified as one that involves demolition and rebuilding a significant portion of the residence or new construction. Homeowners must comply with California OSHA safety regulations. If an unlicensed contractor has an employee who is injured during the job, the injured worker may be able to file a lawsuit against the homeowner for violating the law regarding the hiring of an unlicensed contractor. 33. At all times relevant herein, Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, Julio Sanchez, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, were not insured under California Workers' Compensation laws. Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes alleges that at all times relevant herein, pursuant to California Labor Code §2750.5 and by operation of law Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, Julio Sanchez, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and each of them, were the employer of Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes under the "Ultimate Hirer" doctrine, and the Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes was an employee of said defendants. Where an owner or general contractor hires an unlicensed contractor, there are several presumptions. Under Labor Code section 2750.5, an unlicensed contractor and their employees are presumed to be the employee of the hirer; this eliminates the owner's defense that he is not liable for the conduct of the independent contractor. Moreover, if the owner and/or general contractor did not provide wrokers' compensation insurance for the injured subcontractor, the injured worker can bring a civil suit against the employer. (Lab. Code, § 3708, 3709) Under California law, an "unlicensed contractor" - one who lacks the proper contractor's license for the work- cannot be an independent contractor. The hirer of the unlicensed contractor is presumed to be his "employer." Labor Code section 2750.5 states in part: There is a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of proof that a worker performing services for which a license is required pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, or who is performing such services for a person who is required to obtain such a license is an employee rather than an independent contractor. The penultimate paragraph of the statute states: In addition to the factors contained in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), any person performing any function or activity for which a license is required pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code shall hold a valid contractor's license as a condition of having independent contractor status. An injured employee of an unlicensed contractor is also covered under section 2750.5. The employee of an unlicensed contractor is considered the direct employee of the hirer. The following presumptions come into play to assist Plaintiffs recovery against an employer who fails to secure workers' compensation insurance: An injured employee or his dependents may bring a civil action at law against such employer for damages. (Lab. Code, § 3706.) The injured employee or his dependents may attach the property of the employer, at any time upon or after the institution of the action, to secure the payment of any judgment that is ultimately obtained. (Lab. Code, § 3707.) It is presumed that the injury to the employee was a direct result and grew out of the negligence of the employer, and the burden of proof is upon the employer, to rebut the presumption of negligence. (Lab. Code, § 3708.)It is not a defense to the employer that the employee was guilty of contributory negligence, or assumed the risk of the hazard. (Lab. Code, § 3708.) Such judgment shall include a reasonable attorney's fee fixed by the court. (Lab. Code, § 3709.) The Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes alleges that Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, and DOES 1 through 100, were at all relevant times herein, the property owners, and in possession, and control of said property on 13311 Redhill Ave., Tustin, CA 92780, herein described, including, but not limited to location where this incident occurred. That Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereupon allege, that each of the Defendants designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner or means for the events and happenings herein referred to, and proximately caused injury and damage to the Plaintiffs, as herein alleged, either through their conduct or through the conduct of their agents, servants, or employees, or due to their ownership, manufacture, maintenance, repair or sale of the instrumentalities causing injuries and damages, or in some manner or means presently unknown to these plaintiffs. Plaintiffs are informed, believe, and thereon alleges that, at all times mentioned herein, there existed a unity of interest and ownership between the specifically named Defendants and DOE defendants, and each of them, such that any individuality and separateness between the Defendants, and each of them, ceased to exist. Moreover, that specifically named Defendants, and DOE Defendants, and each of them, were the successors-in-interest and/or alter egos of the other defendants, and each of them, in that they purchased, controlled, dominated, and operated each other without any separate identity, observation of formalities, or other manner of division. Additionally, that to continue maintaining the facade of a separateness and individual existence between the specifically named Defendants and DOE Defendants, and each of them, does not satisfy justice. That at all times herein alleged, the Defendants, and each of them, were acting as the agents, servants, and employees of the other Defendants herein, and of each other, and were acting within the purpose and scope and authority of their said employment or agency. Plaintiffs pray for any and all pre judgment interest under California Code of Civil Procedure, §3291 and any other interest allowed by law.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: BY PLAINTIFF CARLOS ANTONIO REYES FOR NEGLIGENCE PER SE, VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE, FOR PERSONAL INJURIES AGAINST JOHN CHOW, JLC PROPERTY INVESTMENT, JULIO SANCHEZ, AND DOES 1-100 INCLUSIVE, AND EACH OF THEM The Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes hereby re-alleges and incorporates herein

by reference, all of the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 48, inclusive, of this complaint, as though fully set forth at length herein. Homeowners who hire unlicensed contractors can be found at fault for their part in the underground economy. If a homeowner contracts for a significant residential remodel, he or she is treated as an employer and is required to provide a safe place of employment. Where an owner or general contractor hires an unlicensed contractor, there are several presumptions. Under Labor Code section 2750.5, an unlicensed contractor and their employees are presumed to be the employee of the hirer; this eliminates the owner's defense that he is not liable for the conduct of the independent contractor. Moreover, if the owner and/or general contractor did not provide workers' compensation insurance for the injured subcontractor, the injured worker can bring a civil suit against the employer. (Lab. Code, §3706) The employer is presumed negligent; the defenses of contributory negligence and assumption of the risk are not available; and a judgment includes attorney's fees. (Lab. Code, §§ 3708, 3709.) On August 3, 2021, the defendants violated California Business & Professions Code § 7026. Every entity must be licensed as a contractor in California if the entity offers to or does construct or alter any structure on real property in the state for a total cost greater than $500 (Business and Professions Code § 7026). Business and Professions Code § 7026 broadly defines the term "contractor" to include one who acts in the capacity of a contractor and "any person who undertakes to ... or does himself or herself or by through others" work that a contractor would undertake. Business and Professions Code § 7031 prohibits the unlicensed contractor from bringing or maintaining an action to collect compensation for the act or contract (law or equity), and requires disgorgement of all sums already paid. August 3, 2021, the Defendants violated California Code of Regulations, TITLE 8: § 3203(a) which requires among other things: Injury and Illness Prevention Program; every employer shall establish, implement and maintain an effective Injury and Illness Prevention Program; (2) Include a system for ensuring that employees comply with safe and healthy work practices; (3) Include a system for communicating with employees in a form readily understandable by all affected employees on matters relating to occupational safety and health; (4) Include procedures for identifying and evaluating work place hazards including scheduled periodic inspections to identify unsafe conditions and work practices. Inspections shall be made to identify and evaluate hazards . Include methods and/or procedures for correcting unsafe or unhealthy conditions, work practices and work procedures in a timely manner based on the severity of the hazard. Provide training and instruction. On August 3, 2021, the Defendants violated Title 8 of the California Code of Regulations (T8CCCR) section 3203, which requires every employer to develop and implement an effective IIPP. An effective IIPP improves the safety and health in your workplace and reduces costs by good management and employee involvement. The Injury and Illness Prevention Program (IIPP) is an important written workplace safety program. No Defendant was in compliance. California Code of Regulations, TITLE 8: §Section 3203 requires among other things that an accident prevention program shall be inaugurated and maintained. On August 3, 2021, Defendants failed to comply with the requirements as listed above; and the violations consisted, among others, of generally not having injury and illness prevention program, no pre-job inspection/documentation of training and no pre-job briefing/safe work procedures. Defendants' aforementioned violations of statutes, codes or ordinances caused the serious injuries and damages of Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes. Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, Julio Sanchez, and Does 1-100 inclusive, and each of them, failed to exercise ordinary or reasonable care in the hiring, management, supervision, control of its employees and hired unlicensed contractors to work and perform demolish work at the 13311 Redhill Ave., Tustin, CA 92780 property mentioned above and said negligence directly caused the serious injuries to Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes, in violation of the above-mentioned laws, statutes, codes or ordinances. The serious injuries and damages suffered by the Plaintiff, Carlos Antonio Reyes, resulted from an occurrence of the nature which the aforementioned statutes, codes or ordinances were designed to prevent. The demolish worker, Plaintiff Carlos Antonio Reyes, is one of the class of persons for whose protection the aforementioned statutes, codes, or ordinances were adopted. The negligence and violations of the aforementioned laws, statutes, codes, or ordinances by Defendants John Chow, JLC Property Investment, Julio Sanchez, and Does 1-100 inclusive, and each of them, were a direct and legal cause, and a substantial factor in causing the injuries and damages suffered by Plaintiff: Carlos Antonio Reyes suffered economic and non-economic damages which will be shown according to proof at the time of trial but in excess of the jurisdictional minimum for this Court.
